

June 10, 2015

4-H News

Wild Wild West

Bridget Hartley, News Reporter

On May 3rd we held our meeting at the Men's Club in Commercial Point. We discussed fair booth ideas, reviewed fair dates and important information and began demonstrations. Our next meeting was held May 17th at the Men's Club. We continued demonstrations and completed our Quality Assurance. Our Health and Safety officer discussed fire safety. Our next meeting will be June 7th at the Sark residence.

Creative Clovers

By Naomi Kinne-Picture 1

The Creative Clovers had a meeting on April 13th. Club t-shirts were passed out. Our guest speaker, Annie Williams, talked about her own 4H experiences and also gave tips about public speaking and how to do demonstrations. 4Hers then broke into groups to work on cooking or art projects. Carli Hutchison did her demonstration on How To Make Trail Mix.

Creatvie Clovers

By Carli Hutchison -Picture 2

The Creative Clovers had a meeting on May 4. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Carli Hutchison. Sierra Burriss led the 4-H pledge. Next guest speaker Sara Kleon talked about how and when she started in 4-H. After that the 4-H members played a game that Sara brought with her about different personalities and related it to colors and how to get along with other personalities. Next the members adjourned the meeting and Hannah Good seconded this motion. Finally Lauren Park did her demonstration and showed the members how to make creamy peanut butter dip from the cook book.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

---