

4-H News

The Creative Clovers had a meeting on March 9. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Hannah Good and the 4-H pledge was led by Gabby Park. The Community Service Project will be on March 30 at the Pickaway County Animal Shelter. The club voted on club t-shirt designs. Project books were then passed out. Angie Kinne talked about 4-H opportunities including 4-H Opportunities Day, Communications Night and 4-H Camp. Gabby introduced the guest speaker, Carolyn Park. She talked about the My Plate and how to eat healthy. Then Sierra Burris did her demonstration on how to mount a horse. The next meeting will be on March 30 at the Pickaway County Animal Shelter.

The Creative Clovers met on March 30th for a brief meeting followed by a at the Pickaway County Animal Shelter. The members learned about the Animal Shelter, toured the shelter and walked dogs.

Creative Clovers
By Naomi Kinne