The Bark from the Scioto Sassafras

Today the Scioto Sassafras 4-H club when to the Kingston National Bank branch in South Bloomfield. There is a picture attached of the group at the bank. Afterwards they had lunch at Pizza Cottage in Circleville

Breaking News

An unknown family paid for lunch for the Caudill's. Then the Caudill's paid for lunch for another unknown family, doing what they call "The Pass it On Project".

After having a wonderful lunch at Pizza Cottage, the 4-H club moved on to the Genesis nursing home, passing out cards and making crafts with the elderly living there.

Finally Scioto Sassafras moved on to another nursing home, Brown Memorial, where they played bingo with the elderly living there.

Darby Fine & Dandy had a meeting on 3/12/2015 (7pm) at Derby United Methodist Church. Our president Leah Solomon led the meeting. The American pledge was led by Dominick Bush and the 4H pledge was led by Wayne Kitchen. As a community service we made Easter baskets for Derby United Methodist church's food pantry families. We gathered the items by what each member was taking for their 4-H project. Poultry projects brought peeps and Easter grass, Rabbit projects brought chocolate rabbits, Misc. projects brought a dollar store toy. All other projects brought a bag of candy. Dominick Bush did a demonstration on his compound bow. Jeremiah Layton did a demonstration on sports trivia. Hunter Wright did a demonstration on how to make a survival kit. Our advisor Dawn Bowling did another quality assurance activity. We have been selling candy bars as a fundraiser and we decided to have a team at the Relay for Life on 5/2/15 at Teays Valley HS. The next time we meet will be at our Red Cross Blood Drive on 4/11/2015 (7-11am) at Derby United Methodist Church.
