Saddle & Sirloin

Submitted by: Taylor Rieder

Saddle & Sirloin 4H club met at Walnut Elementary in the cafeteria on January 27, 2015 at 7 PM. The fundraiser for the year, Chinese Auction, will be held at Walnut Elementary on March 7, 2015. Planning for charities and other details will occur at the February 3rd meeting. Each family is to secure 10 stand-alone items or 6 items per member for the auction. Ideas were discussed. The club members voted on donating $450 towards 4H awards for the Pickaway County Fair in June 2015. Ideas for the club t-shirt will be discussed at the next meeting. Demonstrations were given and project sign ups were completed. February meetings will be on the 3rd and the 17th. The first meeting of the month will be a dinner provided by the miscellaneous project members and 17th will be pizza.

Creative Clovers 4-H Club

The Creative Clovers had their 3rd meeting on February 14. The meeting was called to order and the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Sierra Burriss. Next Lauren Park led the 4-H pledge. The Club planned a Community Service project at the Pickaway County Animal Shelter. Guest speaker, Dan Goeglein, Naomi's grandfather, discussed his career at the Ohio Department of Agriculture and their role of assuring quality care for animals, as well as food safety and quality assurance. After that Hannah Good demonstrated how to make a Fish Tail rubber band bracelet. Finally, advisor, Angie Kinne, discussed the color wheel and the members made their own by cutting out colors in some magazines. The next meeting will be on March 9th.
