Monroe Clever Clovers 4-H Club News Report

The January 5, 2016 meeting was held at the Monroe Township building in Five Points. Pledges were led by Megan O'Quin.

Dolores Shaeffer, organizational advisor, discussed the rules for our club and all other requirements. Next meeting will be the election of officers. Each person needs to have a short speech prepared to tell why they are the best person for the job. We will review the club constitution. We discussed a couple of ideas for community service projects. In addition to collecting items each meeting for the food pantry, we will be collecting quarters to donate to help people be able to ride the bus to work.

After the business meeting, members and advisors began checking and completing their re-enrollment forms. All forms must be completed by next meeting.

Snacks were provided by the Green Family. Next meeting will be January 19, 2016 at 7:00 PM at the Monroe Township building.

On December 1, 2015, the Monroe Clever Clovers held their awards and recognition meeting at the Monroe township building. Pledges were led by Adam Horvath-Smith. Certificates and pins were passed out to last year's members and advisors. Our club secretary, Julia Dotson, was honored as runner-up for her record book.

After the awards portion of our meeting, the Holiday fun began. Members brought sugar cookies to decorate. Icing, sprinkles and drinks were provided. There some very decorated cookies. Members ate some for their snack and packaged the rest to take home for later or to share.

Family project guides were given to each family. We discussed ideas for guest speakers, club tour and community service projects. Everyone joined in playing the Skittles game.

We will be collecting food items each meeting to donate to the food pantry in Williamsport. Next meeting will be January 5, 2016 at 7 pm.

Club News Report by: Secretary Ambrosia Havan

The 3rd meeting of the year of the Scioto Scrappin' and More 4H Club was called to order by President Mackenzie Lange, at 6pm on Monday, January 4th, 2016. The meeting was held at the Havan family residence. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Avalon Havan, and the 4H Pledge was led by Cassidy Lange. Roll Call was called by Secretary Ambrosia Havan, and was answered by members stating a project they are taking this year. There were seven members, one advisor, and one parent present.

As old business, the Club discussed how donating gift bags to the Veteran's Christmas party at the Harrisburg VFW went. The members who attended said it went well. The Club was notified that the Operation Christmas Child boxes they created were received by the church they were sent to. There was also another discussion about whether or not the Club should put on a bake sale at the Circleville Tractor Supply Company on Valentine's day to raise funds for Club outings, etc. No motions or decisions were made.

New business was the signing and approving of the Club Constitution and By-Laws. Both were read, and there was a motion by Maria Shappert to approve the Constitution, which was seconded by Ambrosia Havan. There was also a motion by Makayla Lange to approve the By-Laws, which was seconded by Avalon Havan. Both motions passed, and the Constitution and By-Laws were approved without corrections or amendments. All members of the Club then signed both into action.

There were no recreation activities, and refreshments were cookies brought by the Lange, Havan, and Shappert families. The next meeting of the Scioto Scrappin' and More 4H Club will be held at the Havan residence on Thursday, January 14th, 2016 at 6pm.
